Chance Morgan Aviator Part of $5 Million Expansion at Dollywood

Wichita, KS—April 11, 2005—Dollywood in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee opened its Chance Morgan Aviator on March 26th. Given the name “Sky Rider,” it was one of 10 new rides purchased for Dollywood’s $5 million expansion project in the park’s County Fair area. The ride arrived in time to be part of Dollywood’s 20th Anniversary Celebration.

Several existing rides in the County Fair area were retired to make way for the new rides. The Aviator sits in the center of the County Fair expansion. At 70 feet, the airplane-style ride allows passengers to control their own flights with a joystick. Factors such as wind speed and direction make the flight different every time.
