Chance Morgan 28' Carrousel Helps Transform Parking Lot into Entertainment Plaza

Wichita, Kan. — What once served as parking for the University of Pittsburgh is now Schenley Plaza, a beautiful park-like gathering area for Oakland residents in Pittsburgh, Pa. The centerpiece of the plaza is a Chance Morgan 28' carrousel.

The Victorian carrousel was funded by the PNC Financial Services Group. Many of the fifteen carrousel animals, chariot and spinning tub have been adopted by supporters to fund annual operating costs. The carrousel will be open seven days a week from May through October and cost $1.25 per ride.

A four-day grand opening celebration hosted by the Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy will begin Thursday, June 8, and include a PNC Carrousel First Ride Ceremony for the sponsors of PNC Carrousel animals. The carrousel will then open to the public at 10:30 am that day.
